Our Civilization in Grip of Death-Wish It Will Persecute Anyone Who Tries to Save It

MOMENT OF TRUTH

By FRED FARREL

We are approaching the moment of truth.

There are those who tell us that our civilization cannot survive. We meet sober and competent scholars who tell us that the West is already over the hill. This view is set forth lucidly by Whittaker Chambers in his book COLD FRIDAY. Chambers made painfully clear his belief that the contemporary leadership of our civilization is a matter of the blind leading the blind. He says that the Tycoons who rule over us will be wiped out and will never know what hit them. Chambers was firmly convinced that our civilization is in the grip of a death-wish; it will persecute anyone who tries to save it. At the moment, our civilization is still here. In the near-term historical future, it will be subjected to the acid test. Its fitness or unfitness for survival will be decided beyond dispute. The Moment of Truth is approaching; on the far side of that moment there will be no appeal. The time in which significant action will still be possible is short.

If our civilization is to survive, or even if it is not, every man who is really a man will want to know what constitutes fitness for survival. If we are to make an attempt at survival, it is high time, and past time, to jettison some of the excess baggage which we have been carrying. A soldier going into a desperate bayonet battle does not want to carry unnecessary impedimenta on his back. He needs to be free to swing his arms. Unnecessary impedimenta could be fatal in a bayonet battle. Just so, worthless ideological impedimenta can be fatal to the West in its struggle for survival.

The first thing we should jettison is anti-Communism.

The typical American professional anti-Communist is beyond doubt one of the unscrupulous quacks on God's footstool. It should be understood clearly that his activities have nothing to do with fighting any real battle against Communism. Communism will die of old age long before the American anti-Communists ever do it any serious harm. In his famous farewell speech to the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY in Boston, Revilo P. Oliver mentioned the problem of the lack of integrity in pro-American and anti-Communist movements; his remarks are preserved in his book Conspiracy or Degeneracy?

The anti-Communist gentry have been "Fighting Communism" for 60 years, and they have not made a dent in it. It should occur to us, along about now, that there surely must be something wrong with their method of "Fighting Communism." Why don't they win once in a while? How do they always manage to snatch defeat from the very jaws of victory? Why are they always so strangely silent about the fact that the great American Capitalists are and always have been the principal financial backers of world Communism?

To find the answer to this question, we should consult the literary works of some of the great Capitalists who DID NOT support Communism. Henry Ford was one of the most notable holdouts in America. He has left us a catalog of his reasons in his book THE INTERNATIONAL JEW. Ford tried hard to warn his fellow American Capitalists against going along with the Jewish system. Few of them paid any attention to him. They jumped into the Jewish trap like flies diving into a can of beer. In Europe, Gustav Krupp was the leading Capitalist holdout. Krupp left no literary works of his own; but Krupp was very close to Oswald Spengler. Much of the information which Spengler used in his books THE HOUR OF DECISION and MAN AND TECHNICS came from Krupp. When Spengler wrote on the subject of industrial technics, he was not guessing.

We must understand the real role which Marxism has played in the West. First, let us dismiss without serious consideration the myths which have been peddled by Communists and anti-Communists alike. Generations of decent bourgeois folk have tortured themselves deliciously with visions of the "proletarian revolution." In this vision, the poor dash madly to bookstores to buy copies of DAS KAPITAL, at $12.50 per copy. They take the book home and read it. This turns them into a special race of mad dogs. They suddenly swarm out of their fetid slums and into nice Middle Class neighborhoods, where they rape women, burn churches, and hoist the Red Flag atop City Hall. This is a tale fit only to be told to idiot children. There is no proletarian revolution, never has been any proletarian revolution, never will be any proletarian revolution. Marxism is a myth designed to be used as a political lever. Marxism is a movement of the Middle Class, in particular the Jewish Middle Class. The net impact of Marxism has not been to produce a "proletarian revolution," but rather to produce the peculiar upper-class coalition which has actually ruled the West for a hundred years. This is an alliance between rich Jews and rich Goyim. A practical example is the career of August Belmont Jr., who prospered as a Rothschild agent; or the Rockefellers, who are closely allied to Jewish financial and political interests in New York and around the world. Rich Goyim who are allied to the Jews turn absolutely against the masses of their own race. The Jew is awarded cultural control. The Nordic, Aryan folk-culture of the Goy masses is consigned to destruction. It is this alliance between rich Jews and rich Goyim which has backed Communism around the world. They back racial integration in America today. Why? Fundamentally, they want the same thing the old-time Southern plantation owner wanted: They want to be the white masters of a black working populace. The poor whites are to be turned into Negroes by interbreeding. They want white supremacy, but being white is only for the masters, not for the likes of you and me. Even politicians like Strom Thurmond go along with this racket. That is why Thurmond refused to support Wallace and went along with Nixon and the Jew Kissinger. Thurmond is for white supremacy, but white supremacy is only for "quality folks," only for the social class for which Thurmond is a front man. As for the common class of whites, the sooner they are interbred with Negroes and turned black, the better. The common people don't count.

We Should Take Warning!

"A great civilization is not conquered from without until it has destroyed itself within. The essential causes of Rome's decline lay in her people, her morals, her class struggle, her failing trade, her bureaucratic despotism, her stifling taxes, her consuming wars. The political causes of decay were rooted in one fact — that increasing despotism destroyed the citizen's civic sense, and dried up statesmanship at its source." — Dr. Will Durant. — The Story of Civilization, Vol. III.

Thurmond is for white supremacy, and so are the Rockefellers, and so are all the rich Jews in New York. The Negro who thinks that these fancypants "Liberals" will ever do anything real for him is sadly deluded. They believe in white supremacy, but, like the old-time Southern plantation owner, they don't want too many white folks around. In a slave society, where a white master rules over Negro workers, there is no place for "poor white trash" who don't own any Negroes. We think that Strom Thurmond has some explaining to do to the "poor white folks" in his district.

The White Masters of New York are trying to create a great "World Plantation" in which a tiny handful of whites will rule over colored masses. This is Jewish world policy; and today American policy is identical to Jewish policy. To this end, the white masters of New York backed and promoted the Russian Revolution. We have been told some wild tales about how the peasants and workers of Russia rose up in revolt and established workers' soviets, and all that jazz. The fact is that the MONEY MASTERS of New York, in backing the October Revolution, were simply trying to steal Russia all in one piece, as they are trying to steal Africa today.

The "Red Russia" myth which has dominated American public opinion for decades is one of history's great masterpieces of journalistic charlatanry. There is of course no such place on this planet or any other. There could not possibly be such a place; it is beyond the limits of possibility. There is indeed SOMETHING between Leningrad and Vladivostok; but what is really there bears scant resemblance to the "Red Russia" myth told in the Jew-owned press in America. The myth told in the 1920s was that "Red Russia" and the American working class were banded together in an unholy alliance against religion, decency, and good public order. This myth was devoutly believed by our ignorant provincial bourgeois, just as it was laughed at by the great Jewish press lords who concocted and promoted it. In simple truth, a nation or a social class which will accept and believe such hoke is living in a danger zone. Relations between the social classes have sunk to a low ebb; the public morality is on the verge of collapse; civilization is drifting into gangsterism and barbarism. Indeed, this was precisely the condition of the American civilization in the 1920s. It was an epoch of gangsterism and degeneracy.

The "Red Russia" myth exists only in the imaginations of Americans whose minds have been poisoned by the deplorable Jew-owned popular press. What about the real Russia, the place where 200,000,000 ornery bipeds of the genus HOMO actually live? What has been the real reaction of the Russians to the Bolshevik Revolution, i.e., to the efforts of the New York Gang to steal their country all in one piece? Our deplorable popular press depicts the Russians as being possessed by the same mentality as our own "dirty red working class" — all mad dogs, who have read Karl Marx eagerly and as a result are filled with burning revolutionary zeal. Actually, very few Russians have any revolutionary zeal in them at all. If you see a Russian acting like a mad dog, the more likely case is that he is full of vodka, not Marxist revolutionary zeal. Vodka turns them into wild men quickly enough; Marxism actually seems to have little effect on them. The Russians have dealt with Marxism with a strange phlegmatic calm. They (meaning the Russian people) are really the world's prime anti-Communists. For the most part, they simply refuse to discuss Marxism at all. They seldom become involved in arguments about it; but when they act against it they act decisively and always VIOLENTLY. Violence, not argument, is the Russian answer to the Marxist invasion from the West. All manner of Kremlinologists, anti-Communist experts, and other quacks have spread a great lot of nonsense about Russia. In fact, a clear-cut pattern of Russian reaction has emerged, which is plainly understood by competent historians around the world. Russia is implacably hostile to everything Western, and this includes Marxism, which came into Russia from the West. Russia will not accept Marxism permanently. How will they get rid of it. By VIOLENCE. Russians will not engage seriously in any of the ideological arguments which the bourgeois West loves so much. Russia will not adapt itself in any way to the desires of the West. In fact, the argument between the classes, which has raged so hotly in the West for a century, simply does not mean anything to a Russian. The "Red Russian" is purely a figment of your Western imagination. You WANT a Red Russia because it fits neatly into YOUR political mythology; but it fits only YOUR mythology; it does not necessarily interest the Russian at all.

What does the Russian do when he is confronted by the machinations of YOUR civilization? One of them did something in a villa in Mexico back in 1940. He took an ax in his hand. He brought the ax down hard upon the head of old Leon Trotsky. Understand that the Russian who did that was striking at the machinations of YOUR civilization. Leon Trotsky represented the Western interests which used the October Revolution as a mask for their invasion of Russia. The hand that slew Trotsky was out to KILL the influence of the West in Russia. Representing "Westernism" in Russia is a dangerous occupation. Thousands of people have gone to prison for it. Many have been killed. The last real big shot to try it was Lavrenty Beria, the Jewish Chief of the Jewish Secret Police. The Jews are the spearhead of the West in Russia. The Russian Jews connived with New York Jews to bring off the Revolution. Beria stood for Jewish power in Russia. On a day of the days, Beria looked out of a window of the Lubkiana Building in Moscow. He saw troops in the street. The war hero, Marshal Zhukov, had made a surprise move. He had brought two divisions of troops into the city suddenly for the purpose of killing Beria. Russia strikes again! The pattern is persistent and repetitive. Russia does not argue; Russia acts; Russia KILLS the man who tries to put Russia under Western influence. Understand that it is RUSSIA which does this; it is not merely this or that bureaucrat in the Politburo. No Russian in his right mind would dare to act otherwise. It is the PEOPLE of Russia who demand anti-Westernism. If you are a Westerner, you think that your civilization is wonderful, ever so much better than Russia. The Russian does not agree. He sees you, not through the eyes of Karl Marx, but through the eyes of St. John. "COME WITH ME AND SEE THE CONDEMNATION OF THE GREAT HARLOT WHO SITS UPON THE MANY WATERS . . ." The West is that GREAT BABYLON, the great painted harlot, the seat of all corrupt wickedness. This is not a Communist attitude; it already existed in the days of Czar Alexander II. There is only one remedy for the West. It must be destroyed.

If the present ideological impasse continues, be sure that Russia will make a military attack upon the United States, with A-bombs and all. This will be completely in keeping with the emergent pattern of Russian reaction to Western influences, as illustrated in the murder of Leon Trotsky and the slaying of Lavrenty Beria. Russia does not argue about ideology. Russia replies with VIOLENCE. Some day, when the great mushroom cloud explodes over New York, the Jews will realize that Jewish intellectual quackery is not a very effective instrument for the control of Russia. More Jews will be killed in ONE HOUR than Hitler was said to liquidate in five years with his gas chambers. As Robert Welch rides the mushroom cloud through the stratosphere and is blown straight to the pearly gates of St. Peter, he will realize that he is wrong in saying that "Russia is an ignorant and backward nation, which could never make war on the United States." As Billy James Hargis rides the mushroom cloud to his eternal reward, he will realize that gasbaggery in front of a radio microphone is no antidote for VIOLENCE.

If you want to avoid such a fate, you had better wake up. Face the fact that ideological controversy of every kind has become absolutely worthless. The world is still the same old world it always was, long before ideology was invented. Our problem is not to "Fight Communism" but to live on an overcrowded planet in competition with other peoples who compete with us for land and food supplies. These other people may be morally no better and no worse than me. They are simply COMPETITORS.

There must be an end of the "Anti-Labor Right Wing" in America. We know that here we are attacking something dear to the heart of every indefatigable bourgeois gasbag in the country. We have attended a thousand and one "Conservative" meetings in which denunciations of "Red Russia" were mingled with strident demands for the working man's hide. A hundred years ago you could get away with that. Then, Western Civilization was still bathed in at least the afterglow of a great religious tradition. There was a terrific cultural mainstream behind industrial progress. Today all of those assets are gone. Western Culture is an empty fragile shell. An anti-technological tide is rising. The old-fashioned bourgeois dearly loves to argue the quaint old question of whether factories should be owned by an entity called "The State" or another entity called "Free Enterprise." Actually it makes little difference today; the Jews control both the State and private enterprise, so in either case they own everything. A hundred years ago the bewildered displaced peasants who populated the industrial cities would take the beating which the bourgeois wanted to give them, and still keep going. You had better understand, and understand damned quickly, that the new barbarian who lives in the shadow of your tall smokestacks today does not care whether school keeps or not. He would readily put the torch to the industrial civilization. If the bourgeois falls, another class will take their place. Why would the worker care? Today it's strictly YOUR RED WAGON. You cannot swaddle yourself in the mantle of religion and inherited culture, because today there is no religion and no inherited culture. One more round of anti-Labor politics will end the industrial age forever. The Jews have depicted Hitler as a fanatic little hate-peddler. In fact, Hitler worked hard at the business of healing the wounds of class warfare in Germany. I once sat in the Sports Palace in Berlin and heard Hitler speak to an audience of young working men from "Red Berlin." Hitler expounded not class division but racial unity across class lines.

Believe me, Mister American Conservative, you had better busy yourself at the same trade, and quickly. Abandon your evil alliance with the Jews. Make peace with the masses of your own race. Exercise a true and worthy cultural leadership of your own people. We are fed up with "Great anti-Communists" and great "Conservatives" like Robert Welch, who tell us that the Jews are "The Great Achievers of American Life" and must therefore be awarded cultural control over us "inferior" Goyim. We are fed up with "White Supremacists" like Strom Thurmond who run after Nixon and the Jew Kissinger, who want "White Supremacy" surely enough; but what they mean is the "Supremacy" of a few whites like themselves over an interbred, black, conveniently color-coded "Caste Society." We would rather be represented by some of the Negro racists we know than by Strom Thurmond. Thurmond is a

What Happened to Robert DePugh?

There are many concerned and puzzled people in this country today. They have heard Robert DePugh speak, they have read his writings and have seen him on television. They know of his love for America, of his sacrifices in the effort to awaken the people to the dangers facing the nation.

They have also read the newspapers and watched television and have seen him maligned viciously and nationally. They ask why? ? ?

Robert DePugh became aware of the socialist trend in this country many years ago, even before he left college and enlisted in the army in World War II. In 1960 he founded the Minutemen organization. Soon after, along with other informative material, he publicized a letter by the Reuther brothers, written in the thirties from Russia, extolling the communist system and saying, "Carry on the fight for a Soviet America."

December 19, 1961, the Reuther brothers presented to the then Attorney General Robert Kennedy, the "Reuther Memorandum" urging that the administration take steps to suppress the "Radical Right" organizations, "efforts to deal with radical right Generals and Admirals and Minutemen." A specific suggestion was that action be taken to end the Minutemen. This action has been pursued from that time to the present, by persecution, harassment and smear, by arrests, searches and seizures, by suppression of freedom of speech, by coercion and intimidation.

Mr. DePugh was first charged with kidnapping and possession of bombshells. These state charges were groundless and dismissed. When it was seen that these smear tactics were only helping to enlarge the membership in the Minutemen organization, more severe charges were made, firearms charges, and a charge of conspiracy to rob banks. There is no such charge listed in the U.S. Criminal Code.

Then he was convicted on a three count firearms charge, which was appealed; two counts were dismissed outright, the third one was remanded for re-trial. In the time he was waiting for this appeal to be heard, he was indicted for "conspiracy" to rob a bank or banks in Washington. His family tried to make bond. Each time they thought they would be able to raise the amount, the bond was raised. The excessive bond set by the court, difficulty in obtaining bond because of "mysterious" interferences discouraging bondsmen and a fear for his own personal safety, caused Mr. DePugh to go "underground" or into "self imposed exile."

During this time the appellate court acted on the firearms case, in which the one count was to be retried. The trial date was set immediately, to be heard in a matter of days. Bob did not receive notice of this trial, he did not know the date it was to be held, so, failed to appear. As a result, on Feb. 20, 1970, he was sentenced to four years for bond jumping. In all cases against DePugh, the witnesses were and are, people over whom the government holds a threat, paid stooges and unwilling witnesses.

Mr. DePugh is now in New Mexico, where he is again under charges of firearms violations. The second amendment to the U.S. Constitution states, "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed" and nowhere in the Constitution is there named any condition under which this right shall be taken from the people. This case is vital to the citizens of this country. It is common knowledge at this time and a matter of history as to the plight of nations who have had their arms taken from them. In the U.S. the insidious approach is being used, a quietly enacted regulation and then another. Soon the people of this nation may find themselves helpless and unarmed, as was England when invasion was apparently imminent in World War II, as was France, and later, as was Hungary.

Fellow Americans, Wake Up! This is the the most important firearms case in United States history. If Robert DePugh loses this case, then the Second Amendment to the Constitution will have been rendered null and void and the people of this nation will be disarmed.

This is the real reason for the effort to destroy Robert DePugh. He is a symbol of the effort to uphold the second amendment to the Constitution. He has fought a good fight, but there are those in high places who are determined to silence him.

He needs your help, and will appreciate anything you can contribute to his defense.

A Patriot Speaks Up

Friday, February 20, 1970, Robert DePugh, founder of the Minutemen and the Patriotic Party, stood before Judge Collinson in Federal Court, Kansas City, Missouri, and was sentenced to four years in prison. The charge was "bond jumping". Mr. DePugh had failed to appear for trial on a firearms charge. He did not receive the notice of the trial. He did not know the date it was to be held.

He had not been notified at the time of sentencing. By inquiry, his parents learned it was to be the next morning. They hurried to Leavenworth to tell him. He is now in Leavenworth prison, unjustly serving a one-year term, as the result of a groundless indictment which was dismissed.

He stood before the Judge the following morning. After preliminary statements by the attorneys the Judge asked Mr. DePugh if he wished to say something in his own behalf before the sentencing. Mr. DePugh answered, "Yes, Your Honor." While he spoke there was a hush in the room, such that the drop of a pin could have been heard. People leaned forward in rapt attention to hear every word. Tears welled in the eyes of the listeners and streamed down the cheeks of strong mature men. Even those of the opposition were motionless with downcast eyes.

The following is what Bob said to the Court:

"Yes, Your Honor, I would like just a few minutes to mention some things of which the court may not be aware but which may weigh in my favor. At the same time and with equal candor, I will mention some things that may weigh against me.

"I am forty-six years old. For the first forty-one years of my life I was a completely law-abiding citizen.

"When I worked for others, I gave an honest day's work for each day's pay. When other men worked for me, I gave an honest day's pay for each day's work. I tried to be a good husband, a good father and a good neighbor. I have been given honorary membership in several scientific societies. More than 100 new medical products have resulted from my own work as a research chemist. Many of these products are in use today to help save lives and relieve pain. In this small way at least, I have the personal satisfaction of knowing that the world is a little better place for my having been here.

"Even today, those who know me best will confirm that few people set for themselves as rigid a code of personal conduct as the prisoner who stands before you. My personal code of conduct does not permit me to gossip about other people's affairs or to hurt another person's feelings by sarcasm or innuendo. My personal code of conduct does not permit me to make myself look good at another person's expense. My personal code of conduct does not permit me to use profanity, or to drink or even smoke.

"During the past five years, I have been repeatedly accused of crimes I did not commit. As a private citizen I have been forced to marshal my limited resources, financial and psychological, over and over again to defend myself against the awesome power of State and Federal Governments, and the cost has been high — higher than you can ever know.

"Now, Your Honor, for the other side of the coin. I stand before the Court tried and found guilty. At this point it is no doubt traditional for the prisoner to offer some expression of repentance, but in all sincerity, I cannot do so. To make matters worse, I cannot, in good conscience, give the court the slightest assurance that I will ever change my ways.

"It may be of little importance but I would like to say this: I have never broken the law wantonly. I have never done anything that I thought was morally wrong or anything that actually hurt my fellowman.

"Of course, the government's position must be that the individual citizen cannot decide for himself which laws he thinks are right and which laws he thinks are wrong. Every government that has ever existed has told its citizens the same thing. At first impression this seems reasonable enough. It's usually not too difficult to obey the law. In fact, it's very easy — easy, that is, for those who have no great convictions. Such a man will attend to his own affairs. He will 'keep his nose clean'. He will stay out of trouble. He will obey the law.

"They obeyed the law, Your Honor, and stood aside while Jesus was nailed to the cross.

"They obeyed the law, Your Honor, while their fellowmen were sold into slavery, and pocketed their share of the profit.

"In Cuba today, it is the most law-abiding wife who turns her husband into the police for an insulting remark about Castro.

"In North Vietnam today it is the law-abiding citizen who takes part in the public execution of American prisoners of war.

"But for the man who has strong beliefs regarding the basic principles of right and wrong, the path is not always so clear and he has few precedents to guide him.

"The government would naturally argue that there is a great difference between our laws and the laws of Nazi Germany or North Vietnam . . . and every government prosecutor in the Soviet Union will say the same thing.

"It is ironic perhaps, that in this nation of all nations, in a nation born of revolution that the man of strong principle faces problems that are most complex. Has the prisoner before you now committed any crime that was not committed by John Hancock, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Caesar Rodney and all the other American patriots who signed the Declaration of Independence? Did they too not break the law? Did they too not become fugitives from justice?

"What would have happened to these men if the Colonies had lost the Revolutionary War? There would be no Constitution; there would be no Congress and the laws I am accused of breaking would not even exist.

"Naturally, the government will say, 'That's all well and good but now we have our Constitution, Congress and laws and they must all be obeyed. But must they really? Are we a people so vain as to think we have achieved perfection? Are we a na-

DOUGLAS SMITH LETTER

For the TIMING AND SELECTION OF STOCK TRADING by the Smith Index of Money Factors, World Political and Economic Forces

FACTS ARE BETTER THAN POLITICIANS' PROPAGANDA

Today investors should study the facts about the liquidity and debt structure of corporations, banks and the government. The estimated paper losses of all commercial banks, in municipal bonds, mortgages, U.S. securities, and long-term loans is roughly between 45 and 50 billion dollars. The loss in tax exempt securities for Chase Manhattan Bank is $378 million and First National City Bank (N.Y.) $265 million, as reported. As of March 1970, the capital accounts of all commercial banks was only $40 billion, according to U.S. government figures. Should banks be forced to liquidate to remain solvent, as in the 1929-32 era, we could see many banks forced to close. Savings and Loan Banks are in a worse liquid position and the Federal Home Loan and FNMA have been supporting them to the tune of roughly $21 billion. It is one of the reasons the Treasury Dept. has raised the minimum denominations for Treasury Bills to $10,000. I have a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury mailed to me March 12, 1970, which included a statement from George Romney, Sec. of Housing and Urban Development—Quote "It is essential that we discourage the outflow of funds from mortgage lending institutions. This Treasury action should substantially improve our housing outlook."

I would stay out of Bank and Savings and Loan stocks. The vast amount of cash that corporations and utilities are seeking in the bond market shows a lack of liquidity far far worse than in 1929. In 1929, the ratio of liquidity (cash and demand deposits to gross national products) was 26 per cent. In January 1970, it was below this figure at 21 per cent, and as of March 12, 1970, (the latest figures available) it was 20.2 per cent. Unemployment is up and probably will reach 6 per cent in the not too distant future.

My Smith Index of Money Factors, as I keep constantly reminding people, is the difference between the resources and commitments of all commercial, savings, and federal reserve banks and treasury funds. The latest available figure is for March 12, 1970 and shows a deficit, or minus figure of $5,157 million, a drop from February of $1.5 billion.

My Index gave a sell signal Feb. 1, 1966, with the Dow Jones Industrials at 975.89. My Index has been in a minus figure since August 14, 1969.

For over twenty years we have been in a period of excessive spending and monetary inflation with government, corporate, and private debt reaching a figure which just cannot be supported. The Korean and Vietnam Wars have not been fought to win, but to support an economy which could not have been maintained without a war. Last year, I recommended the book "The Figures Spell Doom," by the noted economist-philosopher and tax authority, George T. Altman. It is published by Greenleaf Classics, Inc., 3511 Camino del Rio South, San Diego, Calif. 92120 (Paperback $1.25). It clearly proves my statement that we maintained both wars for economic reasons. In 1930, the government said, "Prosperity is just around the corner." Yet we didn't get out of the depression until Roosevelt put us into war. The 1940 census showed 15 per cent of the labor force still was unemployed.

The recent failure of McDonnell & Co., and three other brokerage houses, is just the beginning of failures. The New York Stock Exchange members have suffered a severe loss on the value of their seats from $515,000 to $265,000, a drop of close to 50 per cent. The present rally started from 774.06 D. J. Ind., and is based on wishful thinking and a drop of 1/2 per cent in the prime interest rates to 8 per cent, but clients must still leave 20 per cent of the loan on deposit, so money is still costly. It was the 1930 rally that trapped the top Wall Street financiers and broke them flat.

"These are times that

— Thomas Paine

A rapid chain of events has all but immobilized the forces of Common Sense: the Postal strike, obtaining newsprint, another press breakdown, insufficient help—to name a few—in addition to the drastic increase in the cost of doing business and back-breaking taxes. We survived but find ourselves deep in debt to the point that we must slow down to near stop. After considerable thought and to relieve the pressure temporarily, we skipped the April 15th issue and will extend subscriptions accordingly.

We could raise our subscription price, of course, but when we think about it, that can afford only long range relief at best and work a hardship on many old-time subscribers who have already given far beyond their means and who have the same problems we have, their 30 cent dollars won't go any further than ours. Besides, we would also have to invest hundreds of dollars to cover the transition, spending time and money we simply do not have. We could publish only once a month, but that too has many drawbacks. When all else fails, there is always the path of "no return."

We are not very good beggars; neither was Conde McGinley before us. We know if we had had the proper financial backing the past 25 years, the history of this country, perhaps the world, would have been changed. We also know the hour is very late. But God still rules the world and the ominous future of our nation could still be changed with your help, if God so wills. Thus we place our problems in your hands, with complete resignation to the Will of God. If the Lord wants us to remain at the front lines of battle, He will find a way before taps is sounded for the last time.

"Wisdom Is Often Just Common Sense"

Regardless of the extent of this rally, it will in my opinion wreck those who buy into it, as the liquidity of corporations and banks and the public debt structure is still unsupportable.

A PATRIOT SPEAKS UP

tion so egotistical as to think the future cannot improve upon the past?

"The best of all we have today — of what we call Western Civilization — was given us by men who broke the law. Think of Galileo sitting in prison for teaching that the earth revolves around the sun. Lister, Harvey and many other physicians broke the laws of their day to conduct the medical research for which we are now so thankful.

"It is in the field of law itself that laws have most often been broken. The Magna Carta was not given to the people of England as the gratuity of a generous monarch. It was fought for by men who broke the law to create better laws. How many heads rolled from the guillotine to bring a new set of laws to France? The laws of this nation and every other nation are written in blood.

"Of all my family (grandparents, parents, wife, brother, children, aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews and nieces) I am the only one that has ever been convicted of a felony. Criminal behaviour does not run in our family. If I am a criminal, I must be of a very special kind. My family knows me well, and of them all, I know of none that would not be proud to stand here in my place and accept the sentence of this court upon their shoulders.

"If I had been tried as a revolutionary then I would have pled guilty for such behavior does run in our family. Many months before the Battle of Lexington and Concord one of my ancestors was executed by the British for revolutionary activity.

"Yes, he broke the law, but if he had not broken the law, this Court would not sit today.

"It's said of the revolutionary, that while he still fights, he's never shown mercy; if he wins he is seldom thanked; and if he loses, he is never forgiven. I do not ask for thanks, forgiveness or mercy.

"I would appreciate justice. But if I am not given justice, then I will accept injustice, and I will fashion even that into a weapon to continue the fight for principle, for pride, for honor. I will never give up."

"Southern Gentleman" we may be sure. He wants exactly what "Ole Massa" wanted on the Southern plantation, and the same thing Jews like Kissinger want. He wants a black working population bossed by a small white ruling class. We white racists, and a good many black racists who are really smart, want something entirely different. We want our own racial folk-cultures; we want to see our races thrive, not to see them sold into slavery. As long as the American Conservative keeps to his minority position and isolates himself from the masses of his own race, he will be nothing but a gasbag and a bore. If you cannot or will not establish a good political rapport with the masses of your own race, then, so help us God, the Russians are right about you, and one day you will hear the voice of the Archangel crying, "COME WITH ME AND SEE THE CONDEMNATION OF THE GREAT HARLOT WHO SITS UPON THE MANY WATERS . . ."
